RECTOR'S MESSAGE

1 APRIL 2018 EASTER SUNDAY

The Lord is Risen. He is Risen indeed! It speaks of the joy and celebration the followers of Christ must experience as we consider the one event in history that has impacted all of us.

We sing:

*He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today,
He walks with me and talks with me,
Along lives narrow way,
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart.
You ask me how I know He lives.
He lives within my heart.*

The resurrection of Jesus is not a remote and impersonal event in history. It has personal significance for everyone. It must grip us and propel us to go out and share this best news for all time to everyone around us who has not heard of this news before. It is like telling people you have found the cure for cancer. I can see this in new born Christians. They have this good news which they have found and it is just bursting out of them.

This Easter, let us be reminded that we possess the good news. Do not keep this good news to ourselves. Let us share it.
