

RECTOR'S MESSAGE 2 & 3 December 2017 1st Sunday of Advent

We are coming to the end of yet another eventful year. Many of us will be involved to use this time to reach out to our loved ones, our friends and neighbors. We are reminded that no one knows when Christ will return. We must live as if today will be the last day and we must be found faithful. It is for this reason that we must keep watch and pray.

We have started the 24 hour Prayer Chain which starts every Monday at 6pm and ends at 6pm on Tuesday. I am so encouraged that many have signed up and made a commitment to pray. I trust that those who committed to pray have found the time spent refreshing and rewarding. When we pray, the promise is the Lord will hear us. My hope is this small step will be sustained and grow until we have a 24/7 prayer chain in our church.

Over the next couple of weeks, the different language zones will be organizing prayer walks or prayer drives to saturate our neighborhood with prayer. Join in and encourage our cell group and friends to participate. As we pray, we will move the hands of God to do the things we cannot do ourselves.

Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else. Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thessalonians 5: 15-18.
